NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!
AT Creech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and with they come.

Why, just look, the streets filed with drays all loaded with new Good's

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 50 CASES OF DRY GOODS, consisting A large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind, that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cen s per yard: want you look at them at 10 cents? and can't you afford to buy them at 12½.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed a-long
The listning winds received the song.
COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.50. Do you want them cheapor? same quality. Cant find them! Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them. 5, 7, 8, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's, and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

All right; Prices right; Styles right; and did you know that Creech's is the place to buy hats right? Come and look.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands and I hope, by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

A. CREECH.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1870.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE.
For House of Representatives.
DR. J. B. DUNN,
SPECIAL ELECTION 26TH NOVEMBER, NEXT.

We are authorized to withdraw the name of MR. J. J. OVERBY, as a candidate, and to say that he will support Dr. Dunn, the regular nominee.

4TH DISTRICT CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Gov. Holden has appointed Saturday the 12th day of November next, to hold the election to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. R. B. Gilliam, in our Congressional Delegation.

All the Democratic Conservative delegates appointed by the Conservatives of Warren, Granville, Franklin, Nash, Johnston, Chatham, Orange and Wake to the nominating Convention held at Franklinton in June last, are requested to hold themselves in readiness to meet in Convention at Frankinton, on Friday the 11th of November, at 12 o'clock, M., to nominate a candidate to fill said vacancy.

That day has been suggested as the time and we presume will be fixed upon, and we make the notice to give timely warning to the delegates.

VISIT TO WILMINGTON.

We have just made a flying trip to Wilmington to see Judge Buxton, who was holding Court there, having exchanged circuits with Judge Russell. Judge Buxton had induced us to believe, that if we would make a personal application for a bench warrant against Gov. Holden it would be granted. On the 3rd of October when he was holding Union Court, we sent him an affidavit complaining that one W. W. Holden and Alex. Rufin, (negro) and others had assaulted and falsely imprisoned us, Holden having brutalised the negro and others the guns with which to assault us To this affidavit the Judge made the following reply:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, } 31 Oct. 1870.
UNION COUNTY. }

This is an application for a Bench Warrant this day made to me upon a complaint, verified by affidavit before the Clerk of Wake Superior Court, and handed to me at Monroe by an Attorney. The complainant, Josiah Turner Jr. does not appear before me.

The Act of 10th April, 1869, regulating proceedings in criminal cases, Chap. 81, Secs. 2 and 3, defines the duty of the examining Magistrate—

"SEC. 2. Duty of Magistrate on complaint made: Whenever complaint shall be made to any such Magistrate that a criminal offence has been committed within this State or without this State and within the United States, and that a person charged therewith is in this State, IT SHALL BE THE DUTY OF SUCH MAGISTRATE TO EXAMINE, ON OATH, THE COMPLAINANT AND ANY WITNESS OR WHO MAY BE PRODUCED BY HIM.

"SEC. 3 Duty of Magistrate on examination: IF IT SHALL APPEAR FROM SUCH EXAMINATION THAT ANY CRIMINAL OFFENCE HAS BEEN COMMITTED, the Magistrate shall issue a proper warrant under his hand, with or without seal, reciting the accusation, and commanding the officer, to whom it shall be directed, forthwith to take the person accused of having committed such offence and to bring him before a Magistrate, to be dealt with according to law."

It thus appears that before a complainant is entitled to a warrant, he must undergo an examination, on oath, before the magistrate, in order that it may appear from such examination that a criminal offence has been committed, as mere exparte affidavit before a clerk is not sufficient to justify judicial action in a criminal proceeding.

RALPH P. BUXTON, Judge &c.

We determined that the Judge should have no longer such excuse. When we did appear he asked us but one question, and that was, is this the same case that you complained of before Judges Dick and Settle? We answered in the affirmative. The Judge then rendered the following opinion:

"Upon the foregoing affidavit application is made to me by Josiah Turner, Jr., for a bench warrant against W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, and no one else. Having read and carefully considered the case referred to in the affidavit of State vs. W. W. Holden and George W. Kirk and others, and the reasoning and conclusions arrived at by the Justices in that case meeting the approval of my judgment, I decline granting the bench warrant asked for against his Excellency W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina. (Signed,) RALPH P. BUXTON,
Judge S. C.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 22, 1870.

Josh Billings would call this a "judicial fudge" worthy only of Riley Cannon, of the mountains.

Riley and Ralph have made history for themselves and party on bench warrants.—If the latter had given his true reason at first, he might have saved us 300 miles travel. As it is, nothing is lost by it. The Judges are taught never to evade a question or assign a false reason for doing or not doing an act.

Seeing many old and valued friends in Wilmington, and being so well cared for by Col. Davis, of the Purcell House, leaves us no cause to regret that the Judge compelled us to make personal appearance before him.

A Judge should always give the true reason for his action, even at the peril of "exhausting" the Judiciary, as did Chief Justice Pearson in the case of A. G. Moore.

General Schenck denies the assertion that he will contest the election of Lewis D. Campbell in the third Ohio district.

IMPEACHMENT.

The removal of incompetent, recreant or wicked officers by impeachment, is the only remedy left the people of the State, for malfeasance or lawlessness or corruption in their public servants, pending the term of service for which they were elected. It is a remedy however, which is seldom resorted to, except in the most flagrant instances, because of the tedious and expensive process required, and for the reason that ordinarily, the shortness of the term of office, has placed the power of removal so frequently in the hands of the people, by a new election.

The Radical framers of our present Constitution seem to have anticipated, that in running the State government, they would most certainly put in office many incompetent and corrupt men, with whom the people would grow weary and disgusted, and would consequently remove them at an early day, if their term should be short; and hence provided for their election for four and eight years. The Conservatives foresaw the evil of this thing and they raised their warning voice against this and other iniquities contained in that instrument, pending the canvass for its adoption, but all to no purpose.

Impeachment is an untried remedy in this State, for the reason that until Radicalism spread its poison among us, incompetency, or corruption, or lawlessness and disregard of the Constitution, have never been chargable upon the Executive or Judicial officers of the State.

If we can judge of the temper and wishes of our people, there is a very general, if not universal conviction among them that Gov. Holden, Chief Justice Pearson and others, richly merit impeachment. We understand them to demand of the General Assembly the appointment of a highly competent committee at an early period, to investigate fully the conduct of Gov. Holden and Chief Justice Pearson especially, to ascertain, if there are not unmistakable legal grounds for their impeachment. We believe their conduct demands it. In this opinion we are not influenced by any personal malice or vindictive feeling towards them. But we are prompted by the best future interests of the State in this judgment.

Precedent in matters of government has a controlling influence in the country. It is certain no Governor of North Carolina and no Judges have ever been guilty of such reckless disregard of the principles of civil liberty, of the rights and interests and liberties of the people, as have been committed by Holden and Pearson especially. We want no repetition of such conduct again in North Carolina. The only effective antidote of such criminal conduct known to our laws, is impeachment.

LEASE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

Whatever may be said of Billy Smith as a Railroadist, one thing is certain, he is the most thorough going "selling-out" Railroad President we ever heard or read of.—No sooner does he fall in one effort to transfer the management of the road over which he presides, from the State and private Stockholders to some other power, than straightway he hatches out another project for carrying out that (seemingly to him) paramount object.

Now, as it is evident to the shallowest capacity, that neither the State nor private Stockholders in their corporate capacity, are to be benefited by leasing or selling out the road to outsiders, the conclusion forces itself upon the mind that the axe to be ground is a private one.

When the movement to lease the Road to the R. & G. Railroad Company received a check, we predicted that an effort would be made in the Legislature to sell out to some Northern corporation or capitalist, and the prediction was verified to the extent of the introduction of a bill for that purpose, and of considerable lobbying to bring it to a favorable consideration. But the private ax grinders failed to enlist the Legislature in the project, probably because they were not sufficiently liberal in greasing those who were susceptible of that sort of influence, and the bill silently died out with the voluminous batch that "failed for want of time."

On the failure of the sale, we predicted the present movement to lease that part of the road from Greensboro' to Charlotte to some northern corporation. This prediction has been literally verified in the present effort to get the consent of the Stockholders to lease the road from Greensboro to Charlotte to the Richmond and Danville Railroad company, for which purpose a special meeting of the Stockholders is called at Greensboro on the 8th of November.

The proposition is to lease that part of the Road to the Richmond and Danville Company for $200,000 annually, or five per cent. on the capital stock. This is a worse proposition than the one made by the R. & G. Railroad Company, for it is very certain that a division of the Road as intimated would render the lower end of it totally unremunerative, indeed it would take a pretty good plug out of the two hundred thousand received from the lease to keep the eastern end of the Road in running order.

We can readily conceive why some few of the Stockholders should favor this proposition, but we cannot understand what pretense or argument can be adduced to induce the body of the private Stockholders or the State to consent to the monstrous and suicidal course proposed by those active in the movement. We have no idea that the Stockholders will suffer themselves to be wheedled into any such mad scheme.

No one believes, should this scheme prove successful, that the Road east of Greensboro' would pay the expenses of running it, for they would be very little less than for running the entire Road, while all it would have to depend on for an income would be the transient or way freight and passengers, the through freight and passengers being diverted to the Danville Road at Greensboro'.

The nett earnings of the N. C. Railroad for 1869, were reported to be $461,074,18. It is not likely this exhibit will be materially decreased, but will probably be enhanced, in this and succeeding years. But take the result of 1869 as an average and what does it show? The proposed $200,000 to be paid by the Richmond and Danville Road for the western end, taken from the $461,074 18, leaves $261,074.18 which must be realized by the remainder of the Road to bring the nett income up to that of 1869. Does not every one at all conversant with the subject, know that it cannot be?

Then why is such an absurd and monstrous proposition urged upon the State and private Stockholders? Who is to be benefited by it—the corporation of the N. C. Railroad company or a few private individuals?

There is much to be said on this subject, but we are loth to believe that the proposition can be seriously entertained for a moment, by any considerable number of the stockholders, and therefore forbear saying more at present, and await further developments.

For the Sentinel.

U. S. SENATORSHIP.

I am not much addicted to writing for the news papers, but at the present time I am prompted by a sense of duty to offer some suggestions to my associates of the Conservative party, in reference to the election of a Senator in the Congress of the United States.

I am deeply pained to observe the extent to which mere personal ambition seems to be the actuating motive of prominent men, in the present great crisis of public affairs. This is an ill omen, Mr. Editor, and it betokens a sad decline of public virtue in our country, such as marked the character of the French people at the era of their first great and bloodless revolution.

"The restless desire of distinction" is a form of vanity, which, at all times injurious to its possessor, is peculiarly hurtful to society when it exists in combination with that sort of talent, or tact, that consists in the power of adroit management of popular assemblies and of elective bodies. Disordered conditions of society, such as we have now unhappily fallen upon, have a tendency to increase and diffuse this vice, until almost every man in every obscure community is made to feel himself qualified to fill the highest stations and to aspire to them with eager ambition. Thus it is, that the cunning intriguer in times like the present, finds the minds of men in a state of full preparation to receive with complacency such suggestions as are adapted to produce corrupt combinations, for the promotion of selfish bad men and for the defeat of the pure and wise.

We should closely scan the pretensions of such men as we find in such a momentous juncture as the present, to be anxiously seeking places of high responsibility. History as well as our own observation, will teach us, that those who are readiest to put forward their own claims to such places are not often well qualified for them; on the contrary, modesty is never more certainly the attendant of merit, than in the persons of true patriots and enlightened Statesmen.

A place in the Senate of the United States is not now, what it once was. There was a time when it was an honor indeed, to be a Senator in Congress from North Carolina. But alas! for the honors of earth; they vanish like the Rainbow! Abbott and Pool are her Senators now! It behooves us all to do what we may to restore to the body, once pre-eminently august, the lost lustre of its palmy days, and to retrive for our own beloved State, the prestige of purity and wisdom won for her by her illustrious sons, who, anterior to the present times, shone even in that high sphere with a brightness, undimmed by their association with such men as Clay, Calhoun, Webster and other "great stars," that do now, and will forever continue to

"Glow on the towers of fame."

We certainly have in North Carolina, men who would now fell it upon the station of Senator in Congress, more honor than they could possibly receive from it. For example, William A. Graham is a man so dignified in person, so pure in his purposes, so imbued with the wisdom of learning and experience, as to fit him for any position however exalted, and his weight of character abroad as well as at home, would impress itself upon the body, and make it in a small degree partaker of his own dignity and purity. Even as the rock-based tenement, the "storms and floods" of faction would beat against him in vain; and while others less strongly nerved, might give way or shake with timid apprehensions, his cool and steady temperament would enable him to meet with commanding power any exigency, and to view all questions

"Through the mild lights of a calm philosophy."

He is beyond all doubt, at this time, in this State, "the very first in the hearts of his fellow citizens."

Next to him, stands Thomas Bragg, another true and trusty patriot, often tried and never found wanting. He has borne all his high honors with gracefulness and meekness; and, as in the past, he was emphatically the "representative man" of the old Democratic party of our State. So now he reflects that incorruptible patriotism which has prompted a large majority of them to cast away their old grudges and animosities and to unite, heart and soul, with those who, guided by principle, are working together for the good of their common country, supposing their personal ends until its redemption is made sure. He knows but little of moral influences, who can doubt that such a man would elevate the character and augment the dignity of any body of which he might be a member! But both of these patriotic statesmen are under the "ban" of our Republican Empire!

For one I take the liberty of stating, that were I a member of the legislature, ban or no ban, I should vote for either of them, in preference to some, whose disabilities have been removed and whose names on this account have been presented through the medium of the press, as suitable candidates for the Senate. Such a course however, I do not wish to urge upon others.

We have some very worthy gentlemen in our party, who without incurring the suspicion of a base compromise of principle, have had their patriotic disabilities removed, and from this class a good choice can be made, and be made by our party in spite of the remnant of political rouges still left in the General Assembly. But in order to insure the control of this matter by our party, a careful attention to organization is absolutely necessary. Let our friends meet in council—say caucus if you please—and then resolve to act together and vote for the individual for Senator who it may be ascertained is the choice, fairly expressed, of a majority of our party in the Legislature.

If any man comes before them who has been trying to conciliate the accursed faction of scallawags and carpet-baggers with a view to get their support, let him be cast overboard with anatoema maranatha, on his head. The faction to which I refer, cannot elect one of their own choice; their policy will be to unite upon some man, who professing to belong to our party is nevertheless in heart for himself alone, and will be willing to owe his election to them. Mr. Editor such a man is more to be dreaded than an outspoken scallawag. He cannot be trusted in times of trial. His sense of obligation to the faction to whom he will owe his election, will be constantly swaying his mind, and affecting his action, and then if he does betray us,—which he will sooner or later be very apt to do, we will find ourselves comparatively powerless to oppose him and to counteract the injury he may do us.

It is to be hoped that the Conservatives in the Legislature, will so organize, when they assemble in Raleigh, as to secure to themselves alone, the disposal of the high places of trust and honor which may have to be filled, so that no encouragement may be given to selfish intriguers, and no comfort be afforded to the unprincipled adversaries of our cause. CIVIS.

[Perhaps, it is well enough for us to say to "Civis," that we are in no danger of being disturbed by men in our ranks, who seek support from scallawags or carpet-baggers. Such support would certainly kill any man with the Democrats and Conservatives. Gen. Clingman is the only man we have heard of disposed to play that game, and him we regard as a lunatic. —EDITOR.]

TO THE SURVIVING OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS OF THE ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA:

COMRADES—The sad tidings of the death of our great Commander came at a time when, by the interruption of all the ordinary modes of travelling, very many of us were debarred the privilege of participating in the funeral ceremonies attending the burial of him we loved so well, or, by concerted action, of giving expression to our feelings on the occasion. While the unburied remains of the illustrious Hero were yet under the affectionate care of friends who were bowed down with a sorrow unutterable, the hoarse cry of "treason" was croaked from certain quarters, for the vile but abortive purpose of casting a stigma upon his pure and exalted character. His fame belongs to the world, and to history, and is beyond the reach of malignity; but a sacred duty devolves upon those whom, in defence of a cause he believed to be just and to which he remained true to the latest moment of his life, he led so often to battle, and for whom he ever cherished the most affectionate regard; we owe it to our fallen comrades, to ourselves, and to posterity, by some suitable and lasting memorial, to manifest to the world, for all time to come, that we were not unworthy to be led by our immortal CHIEF, and that we are not now ashamed of the principles for which LEE fought and JACKSON died.

Already steps have been taken by some Confederate officers and soldiers, assembled at Lexington, the place of General Lee's death and burial, to inaugurate a Memorial Association; and being, as I believe, the senior in rank of all officers of the Army of Northern Virginia, now living in the State, I respectfully suggest and invite a Conference, at Richmond, on Thursday, the 3rd day of November next, of all the survivors of that Army, whether officers or privates, and in whatever State they may live, who can conveniently attend, for the purpose of procuring concert of action in regard to the proceeding contemplated. I would also invite to that Conference the surviving officers and soldiers of all the other Confederate Armies, as well as the officers, sailors and marines of the Confederate Navy.

This call would have been made sooner, but for my absence up to this time, in a county where there are no railroads or telegraphs, and where I was detained by imperative duties.

Your friend and late fellow-soldier,
J. A. EARLY.

Lynchburg, Va., October 24th, 1870.

The negro vote in Ohio is far more than the majority. They carried both the Radical Congressional Districts in Hamilton Co. The Cincinnati Times (Rad.) says that but for the negro vote the State would have gone Democratic by about 10,000.

RALEIGH COTTON MARKET.

Oct. 29, 1870.

Reported by A. G. Lee & Co. wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants, Raleigh, N. C.

Receipts	184 bales.
For shipment	164 "
For Storage	20 "

Market quiet and lower at 13 to 13¼ cts.

To those in Arrears.—We have commenced sending out our accounts to those who are in arrears for subscription to the SENTINEL, and hope these accounts will receive prompt attention in every instance. Those from whom we may not hear by the meeting of the Legislature, will be considered as desiring the discontinuance of the paper, and we shall erase their names accordingly.

We shall also attach the red cross to the names of those in arrears, that there may be no mistake in regard to their having due notice of their subscriptions having expired.

So, look out for the red mark.

Mayor's Court.—On Saturday morning last, Andrew McKenzie, col., was arraigned before His Honor, charged with forging an order in the name of Simon Craven, col., and W. C. Upchurch for one dollar's worth of raisins. As the evidence in the case justified it, His Honor required a bond of $200 from Andrew for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, which he gave. This was the only case that appeared on the books.

Lost, near the Masonic Hall, Raleigh, a few days ago, a plain gold ring, with the initials "J. W. B." engraved on it. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning it to the SENTINEL office.

Out of Season.—We have a sprig filled with blooms, taken from a cherry tree on the farm of Mr. David Hinton, near the city. Blooms of second growth are common on fruit trees this Fall.

At the last regular meeting of the Farmers Club of St. Matthews Township of Wake Co. Capt. R. B. Saunders, Maj. B. C. Moring, Jodah Turner, Jr., were appointed delegates to the Annual Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society to be held at Wilmington on the 15th of Nov.

Incorrect.—We were misinformed as to the cause of the death of Solomon Bragg, in stating that it was from getting wet on Thursday of the Fair; he died suddenly from a second attack of apoplexy.

Removal.—Mr. S. D. Harrison, as will be seen by a reference to our columns of new advertisements, has removed from his old stand on the corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets to the handsome and spacious store recently erected by Ruffin Williams, Esq. just in rear of his residence.—Mr. Harrison invites his friends and the public generally to call on him and inspect the new and elegant assortment of groceries &c. which he has just laid in.

Not Accepted.—We hereby inform Mr. Grisman, of the Nevada grand gift enterprise, that his terms are not accepted. We have never desired to possess any tickets in such enterprises, since our last experience with tickets of a like concern in this State and the Oride watch company of New York. Nor do we know any suitable person to recommend as Agent for the concern, in this locality; they have all shouldered their carpet-bags and left, or got into the Penitentiary except two, and they are now engaged in editing a Radical newspaper, and have no time to devote to small swindling operations.

We see from the Baltimore Underwriter that the new building of the "Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company," in Hartford, will be 74 feet front by 105 deep, and 100 feet high. The architect is Mr. Batterson, the material Westerly granite, the style Renaissance, and the estimated cost $1,000,000.

The Wilmington Post says, it learns from President Martin, of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, that the entire Road is now under the control of the new managers from Wilmington to Charlotte, and that everything is working well. The principal office is at Wilmington.

Dried Fruit.—It is stated that 360,586 pounds of dried fruit, have been shipped from Greensboro' up to the 26th inst.

Mr. James McCormick, of Robeson county, was drowned in Lumber River on the night of the 20th by the running away of an unruly mule, hitched to a buggy.

Daily trains are still continued on the Western Extension Railroad, from Salisbury to Marion, N. C.

A revival of religion is in progress in the Methodist Church in Goldsboro', under the labors of Rev. J. P. Moore.

The old and the new Sheriffs of Pitt are squabbling for the office. The case goes before Judge Jones in November.

A Virginia "Westminster Abbey."—They are talking of a "Westminster Abbey" in Virginia, in which to gather the remains of the honored dead.

MR. CLINGMAN.

We did not see the old gentleman when he was last in this city. He must have changed his quarters. We hear it rumored, that the old gentleman is seeking to secure the Radical vote of the Legislature, for U. S. Senator, assuring them that he can secure it through Democratic votes with theirs to elect him. We do not know the truth of this rumor. We do not believe that the old gentleman could get one Democratic or Conservative vote, for the reason that any such voter would be sure of being cashiered by his constituents. We take it for granted, that all this talk about Radicals voting for Democrats, or Democrats voting for Radicals, is all bosh. The day is passed for this game. No Democrat can solicit votes from Radicals or vice versa without losing cast with his own party.

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN.

Chapel Hill, Oct. 28, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—Please give notice that the flourishing institution known as the "University" run by Solomon Pool, as chief engineer, has lost one of its brightest ornaments in the shape of a Professor.—Professor Martlin is "lost, strayed or stolen," and has not been come-atable for about two months, to hear a recitation or flog an urchin. Can you tell what has become of him?

INQUIRER.

[We hope "Inquirer" will be satisfied of the perfect safety of the missing article, when we inform him that it is in this city, said to be helping Capt Cod Ashley in editing the Standard.]

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor: We all regret the death of Hon. R. B. Gilliam and feel that we have lost an able man, but it becomes our duty to select some one to fill his place, and in doing so we must look for a man that can without doubt get the last vote in the district. Our people living between the two strongest Conservative counties, Chatham and Johnston, have concluded that the surest chance to secure another victory over the Radicals is to run L. R. Waddell, of Johnston county. He was raised in Chatham county until he went to Pearson's law school; kept store for a merchant in Pittsboro' for several years and is known to the people of Chatham most favorably, and can command as large a vote in that county as any man in the district; and we know that in Johnston the past summer he revolutionized that county, completely beating his opponent for the Senate 500 votes, and stands to day a stronger man in the eyes of the people than any one in Johnston; and added to all this he is said to be one of the best speakers in the State, and has risen to distinction in his profession. I do not hesitate to say that L. R. Waddell can get more votes for Congress in the counties of Chatham and Johnston than any other gentleman can in any three counties in the district. Try him and you will see. R.

GENERAL JAIL DELIVERY.

Mr. Editor: Sometime during last night the prisoners confined in the county jail at this place made their escape. One of the prisoners, John Cowles of Salisbury, was brought to this jail about two months ago, after several ineffectual efforts on the part of the officers of the law. This makes his sixth escape from custody. There is evidently something wrong somewhere. Large rewards have been offered and paid for his apprehension and each and everytime he has made his escape. He is charged with breaking and robbing the store of Mr. Hogan at this place, of several hundred dollars in goods. Mr. Hogan has used great energy in securing his apprehension and at considerable expense—hoping to realize something for the heavy loss he has sustained. Cowles seems to possess some talismanic power in escaping from custody.—The jail at this place has heretofore proved abundantly secure and regarded as impregnable. The cell in which he was confined is built entirely of heavy iron bars, fastened securely together by heavy rivets of iron. The bars and rivets were sawed or cut, thereby making a small opening, through which the scoundrel must have escaped though it looks miraculous that such should be the case. Nothing reliable has been developed. Cowles is very shrewd and has "grown gray" in the service of the devil, and the commission of crime. He is 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, bright mullatto about 29 years of age, quick spoken, intelligent and will probably weigh 125 or 130 pounds. He is supposed to have the control of money and is reported as a man of property.

A.

Newton, Oct. 26, 1870.

It is reported that the five Episcopalian dioceses of New York will be created into an archbishopric with Bishop Potter at its head.

Capt. Jas. R. Thorpe, of the Reconstructed Farmer, has consented to deliver the address before the Simpson County Agricultural Society at the Fair to be held in December next.

The annual election in Baltimore for members of the first branch of the City Council took place Wednesday. All the Regular Democratic nominees were elected.

Cincinnati has a Norwegian giant seven feet ten inches high.

A young lady gave the French fair at San Francisco a $2,500 set of diamonds, but declined to give her name.

A kilometre is about three fifths of an English mile.

The population of Philadelphia, as ascertained by the complete census returns, numbers 657,179; in 1860 it was 565,529. The increase is 91,650, or 16.12 per cent.

An Autumn Suggestion.

Now, as heavy fogs arise and sweeping winds commence to blow; now, as the human body, exhausted like inanimate nature by the heats of summer, begins to wilt and droop; now, ere the inclement winter makes its trying onset; now is the time for a preparatory course of the best acclimating tonic in existence: Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

It is for and Agues rampant in all parts of the country. Quinine, the physicians admit, will not quell the phase of the disease which at the present pervades the entire West. It is well that it is so, for the remedy (so-called) is deadlier than the malady. But Hostetter's Bitters is irresistible. It would be safe to make a contract, under heavy penalties, that any given "Fever-and-Ague District" should be exempted from the disorder for any particular time, provided every inhabitant would take the Bitters according to directions, during the term of the contract.—There has never been an instance in which this sterling invigorant and anti-febrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint when taken duly as a protection against malaria. Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the official specifics and now prescribe this harmless vegetable tonic, and nothing else, as a preventive and cure for all the forms of chills and fever. Vigor is the thing most needful in these cases, as well as in dyspepsia and nervous affections, and Hostetter's Bitters are the safest, surest, and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted.

FOREIGN.

The war in Europe has caused a great scarceness in Millinery goods and yet Ilester's new store on Fayetteville street opposite Tuchers, continues to receive great varieties of the finest quality and latest styles at New York prices.

The great number of orders received from all parts of the State, and the liberal patronage of the Ladies of Raleigh, has been truly encouraging to this new establishment, for which the undersigned returns many thanks, and promises to continue the usual promptness in filling orders, and an earnest effort to please all.

Bridal Bonnets, Hats, Wreaths, Veils, &c. always ready or made to order.

THE PAIN KILLER.

This celebrated medicine has won a deservedly high reputation as an alleviator of pain and a preserver of health. It has become a household remedy, from the fact that it gives immediate and permanent relief. It is a purely vegetable preparation, made from the best and purest materials, safe to keep and to use in every family. It is recommended by physicians and persons of all classes, and to-day, after a public trial of thirty years—the average life of man—it stands unrivalled and uncontested, spreading its usefulness over the wide world. Its large and increasing sale affords positive evidence of its enduring fame. We do not deem it necessary to say much in its favor as one small bottle will do more to convince you of its efficacy than all the advertisements in the world. Give it one fair trial and you would not be without it for ten times its cost.

Directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists.

Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 per bottle.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000 00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies of deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $4,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $31,021,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division; and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

NOTICE TO CAPITALISTS.

I SHALL Proceed to sell to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House door in the Town of Louisburg, on the 1st, Monday in November next, it being the 7th day of the month, some Twenty or Twenty-five Thousand Acres of valuable Land, among which is the well known Portis Gold Mine, lying in Franklin county on the waters of Fishing and Shocco Creeks, containing nine hundred thirty-three and one-third (933⅓) acres together with all the Machinery and appurtenances.

Also all the chattle property. This property is so well known that any particular description is deemed unnecessary. The entire tract is rich in Gold, and all the difficulty is a full supply of water. We are informed that an Independent Water Company is now surveying a ditch from Sandy Creek, to supply this and other Mines in the neighborhood with water, when this is done and it will be accomplished in a few weeks, this property will be immensely valuable. The property will be sold for cash and unless parties from a distance come in competition, it must be greatly sacrificed.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE

NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.,

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10.000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

P. F. PESCUD, Jr, Agent.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen, & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet Size Bale 4½ feet x24x58x50in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

THOS. H. BRUGGS.

Yours very respectfully, JAS. R. WILDER

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and not to be NON. EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Non-Explosive Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividens annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Distribution of surplus" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the enormous amount paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. Dividends are not declared but Dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of stability the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
